About this Seminar

The expert evidence system is under greater scrutiny than ever before and the demands on the quality of evidence given by experts are growing. Hear first-hand from Lord Mustill, a leading authority on expert evidence, his thoughts on the following issues:

- Limits on the experts functions
- Minimising waste
- Instructions to experts
- "Confrontation"
- Tribunal-appointed experts
- Issues of foreign law
- Assessors
- Duties of Lawyers
- Making the evidence understandable

About the Speaker

THE RT. HON. THE LORD MUSTILL

Privy Councillor; Doctor of Laws (Cantab.); Fellow of the British Academy

Michael Mustill was called to the Bar in 1965, becoming Queen's Counsel in 1968. Until 1977, he practised mainly in Commercial law as an advisor and advocate. Throughout he was engaged in commercial arbitrations in England, and latterly also with arbitrations elsewhere, as advocate and arbitrator.

Michael Mustill became successively a Judge of the High Court, the Court of Appeal and the Appellate Committee of the House of Lords, retiring from full-time judicial sittings in 1991. Whilst a High Court Judge he acted as Judge of the Commercial Court, to which arbitration questions are referred. Since then he has sat as arbitrator in numerous cases in England and abroad.

Together with co-author Stewart Boyd he published the first edition of "Commercial Arbitration" in 1982. He is the author of more than 30 contributions to legal journals on various subjects. He had also delivered addresses and taken part in arbitration colloquia etc in some twenty countries.

Amongst other offices, Lord Mustill is a former president of the Expert Witness Institute of England and Wales. Formerly President of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators Michael Mustill is currently a Vice President of the Court of Arbitration of the ICC. Outside the world of arbitration he is a Fellow of the British Academy, and a Doctor of laws of Cambridge University, where he has for some years been Yorke Distinguished Visiting Fellow. From October 2003 - October 2004 he was the Goodhart Visiting Professor of Legal Science at that University. He is also an Honorary Professor of Law at Birmingham University.
