

Commercial Laws in INDONESIA

17 Nov 2005 • 9am to 5pm • Rendezvous Hotel, Singapore

After a period of political stability and extensive economic reforms, Indonesia is able to register an economic growth of 5% in 2004. As more companies re-invest in Indonesia, they will need to have an understanding of the current legal system and business laws to safeguard their investments in Indonesia. This one-day workshop is designed to provide an overall view of the legal framework, contract law, dispute settlement and employment law in Indonesia. Using practical case studies, our speakers will highlight the vital legal issues and pitfalls that investors should be aware of when doing business in Indonesia.

Workshop Highlights:

- Understand the general regulatory framework for Foreign Investments in Indonesia
- Review the licensing process and compliance issues for different types of investment structures
- Learn to draft valid business contracts under Indonesia laws
- Identifying and overcoming the pitfalls in Indonesian contracts
- Find out the best way to settle contract disputes in Indonesia
- Be updated on Indonesian employment law and regulations
- Discover the pitfalls of employment contracts in Indonesia and how to avoid them
