About the Speaker

Ms. Sanjeev Shah - Partner, Speechly Bircham

Sanjeev is one of 22 Private Client partners in Speechly Bircham's Private Client division, which is the second largest in London and is rated by the Chambers 2009 Global Guide as one of the ten leading practices in the world for international private client tax planning. The group won the 'Private Client Law Firm of the Year' in 2009 in the Spear's Wealth Management awards.

Sanjeev primarily advises private banks, trust companies, family offices and their foreign domiciled clients on international tax and estate planning matters which often involves the establishment of complex offshore structures and co-ordinating advice from a team of advisers in a number of different jurisdictions. Sanjeev is cited as an expert in her field by Legal Experts 2009 and is recommended as a leading individual by the UK editors of Chambers 2010. In 2009, Sanjeev was also included in Private Client Practitioner's "35 under 35" list of leading private client professionals.

Sanjeev regularly gives seminars and writes articles for various leading professional publications. She is also joint editor of the World Trust Survey (published by Oxford University Press) with Speechly Bircham's Charles Gothard.
